COMMISSION IS NEARING END OF BUILDING HIGHWAYS

Supervisors and County Engineer to Supervise Canyon and Yorba Paving

Engineering Work Is About Done, Office Force of Department Is Reduced

The work of the Orange County Highway Commission is nearing its close. The preliminary engineering work, both field and office, has been completed for all of the roads that are to be paved under the direction of the highway commission. Bids have been called for the last group of streets to be paved by the commission.

Under the opinion of District Attorney West, given to the Board of Supervisors last week the expenditure of road money raised by general taxation cannot be turned over to the commission. The law places that responsibility upon the Board of Supervisors.

Until that decision was received it had been planned to have the highway commission take charge of the paving of the Santa Ana canyon road and of the road between Placentia avenue and the Santa Ana canyon road, through Placentia, Richfield and Yorba.

The money in the treasury as a result of the sale of bonds in the $1,000,000 issue was more than sufficient to complete the roads outlined at the time the bonds were issued, and several months ago a second group of roads was outlined for improvement with the $240,000 surplus and with additional money to be furnished by the county board.

The work of paving this second group has proceeded rapidly. Bids were ordered published yesterday for three roads in the north end of the county. These are the last of the roads that can be improved with county highway commission funds, as the money has run out, and there remains two roads still to be built as was agreed upon at the time the distribution of the surplus was outlined. At that time it was estimated that the canyon road and the Placentia-Yorba road would have to be paved with county money. The only change that has taken place in the calculations is that the paving of these last two named roads will be directed by the Board of Supervisors and County Engineer McRide instead of by the highway department.

On September 8 the bids for improving Hiatt street and La Mirada avenue at La Habra and a half-mile on Fifth street, Brea, are to be opened, the three sections to be let in one contract. That work is under the control of the County Highway Commission.

On the same date bids are to be received for paving the Santa Ana canyon road from Olive to Peralta. That work is to be under the direction of the supervisors and the county surveyor.

Several of the employees in the office of the highway commission have been let out. The commission will keep on enough engineers to look after the remaining work, which includes the three sections of road to be contracted on September 8. Other roads under the jurisdiction of the commission are the Tustin group, where work will start with the commencement of grading on Irvine boulevard on Friday of this week; the Yorba Linda road, where grading is being done at the Yorba Linda end, Santiago boulevard, where grading has started at the El Modena end; the Garden Grove-Westminster road, where paving at the Westminster end will start the last of this week.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday, upon the recommendation of the commission, the Dyer, Fairview, Smeltzer, Westminster and Stanton roads, upon which pavement was recently finished, were accepted. The concrete bridge across the Santa Ana river on the Anaheim-Olive road was also accepted as completed.

FINCH AFFIDAVIT CORROBORATED IN EVERY WAY

The Seven Important Points In Story of Arabic's Captain Testified to By Many

BERNSTORFF FOR PEACE

German Ambassador Will Go to Great Lengths Before He Will Have Trouble

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The American embassy last evening made public the affidavit of Captain Finch of the White Star liner Arabic concerning the sinking of his ship on Thursday, together with excerpts from affidavits made by seven of the American passengers. These, taken by Consul Washington at Liverpool, have been cabled to the State Department in Washington.

The affidavits corroborate the captain's in every detail, covering the seven most important points in Finch's affidavit, as follows:

The Arabic was torpedoed; no submarine was seen; no warning of any kind was given; the Arabic did not try to escape; had warning been given the Arabic could not have escaped, because there was not time; the Arabic did not try to ram any submarine, and the Arabic could not have rammed a submarine had it seen one, because there wasn't time.

The managers of the White Star Line at Liverpool gave out to the newspapers the following:

"At the time of the Lusitania torpedoing many misleading and untrue statements appeared. Similar statements are beginning to be hinted at in connection with the Arabic which are equally untrue.

"The Arabic was in peaceful trading, outward bound, so there is no question of munitions, and she was not disguised in any way, nor had she any guns mounted. She was over sixty miles south of Ireland."

BERNSTORFF WANTS TO CONFER WITH PRESIDENT WILSON

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, held a series of conferences at the Ritz-Carlton preliminary to making a public statement to the United States government on the Arabic yesterday.

The ambassador declined to comment on this statement. He made known through a representative, however, that he will make every effort within his power to prevent a break between the United States and Germany.

Count von Bernstorff will ask for an interview with President Wilson, at which he will seek to emphasize these points:

1.—Since the diplomatic conversations between Germany and the United States regarding the Frye, the Gulflight, and the Cushing, Germany has not interfered with a single ship flying the American flag.
2.—Every possible precaution has been taken by the German government to prevent attacks on British merchantmen, on which Americans were known to be passengers.
3.—It was not known publicly that Americans were on board the Arabic because the passenger list did not disclose the nationality of any of the passengers.

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS ARE AWAITING DEVELOPMENTS
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Officials today, in discussing the Arabic case said: "We are waiting."

It is very likely that this situation will continue for a week, pending the arrival of Germany's expected explanation. The situation is viewed with the greatest optimism.

GERMANS PASS UP ARABIC CASE LIGHTLY

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—The German press today gave scant space to the Arabic crisis. They commented on the Russian defeats in the Balkans and doings in the Reichstag. There are no indications that the press believed that the Arabic situation is in any way serious.

THE ROYAL EDWARD, chartered by the British government from the Canadian Northern Steamship Company to transport troops from England, was blown up Saturday, Aug. 14, by a German submarine in the Dardanelles. She carried 1350 soldiers, 32 military officers, and a crew of 220. Of these some 600 were saved. She was 11,117-ton steel triple-screw steamer, owned by the Canadian Northern Steamship Company, and is understood to have been commandeered by the government for use as a transport at the beginning of the war. The Royal Edward was built in 1908 at Glasgow. She was 526 feet long and had a sixty foot beam. She was modernly built.

The strike is not spreading, as was expected.

Hull, the wealthy Pasadena who was jailed in Tia Juana, Mexico, on account of accidentally killing a drunken Mexican soldier while automobiling, are making desperate efforts to secure his release without a trial. An automobile caravan of lawyers, prominent citizens and influential Americans, as well as many Spanish San Diegans, left for Tia Juana this morning. They carried affidavits signed by witnesses. They hoped these affidavits would cause Hull's speedy release. The Mexican officials have been planning to remove Hull to Mexico shortly. The court sits there.

They flogged and otherwise tortured their victims. Thus they punished debtors and those unfortunate who had ever offended the "Possum Hunters" in any way. GERMANY MAKES DENIAL OF ANY VICTORY BY RUSSIANS

Claim That Ships Sunk By Russians Were Nothing But Old Vessels

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Balkans again today held the center of the diplomatic stage. The Serbian Council of Ministers have met at Nish and are now framing a reply to the allies' proposal that Serbia shall cede Macedonia in exchange for Bulgaria fighting the Turks. It is predicted there will be a decision within two days. The British press seems optimistic regarding these Balkan negotiations. Berlin reports that all Bulgarian-Turkish negotiations are now "closed." It is believed that an agreement has been reached.

LONDON WAR OFFICE PLEASED WITH OPERATIONS

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The War Office today viewed the Dardanelles operations in a pleased vein. The dispatches indicated that a great land, sea and air assault was successfully progressing. French, British and Russians are co-operating in the movement. It is expected that forcing the straits and opening up the Constantinople gateway will greatly influence the war's end. Considering the prospect of joining in the Turkish spoils will probably cause the Balkans to soon enter the war on the side of the allies. A Russian fleet is hovering off the Bosphorus.

British reinforcements, which recently landed in Sulva Bay, has penetrated far inland beyond the range of the warships' guns. The Australian soldiers seized the Turkish trenches beyond the cliffs as the field artillery was landed to support these troops.

DENIES THAT RUSSIAN VICTORY ANYTHING WORTH WHILE

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—The Admiralty has officially denied the Russian claim that the dreadnaught Moltke, two cruisers and eight torpedo boats were destroyed in the Gulf of Riga battle. As it was stated the vessels alleged to have been sunk were probably craft the Germans themselves had sunk in the hope of bottling up the Russians. The German fleet has silenced the Russian batteries at Pernau. The German losses were one torpedo boat sunk and two damaged. Von Hindenburg is surrounding Vilna. The Slavs of the rear guard are still fighting and slightly delaying the progress of the Germans, but the Teutons are advancing over swamps.

MOVIE FILM TO BE MADE HERE ON TUESDAY

Trustees Will Be Asked For Permit At Meeting On Monday Night

It seems now that the big election parade which will be a part of "Double Trouble," the novel which is being made into motion pictures by W. D. Griffith, will not be filmed in Santa Ana until next Tuesday.
Yesterday Captain F. Du Chailu, Dalton, of the Majestic Reliance Company, and Bennie Zeidman, of the publicity department of the Griffith Studio, were in Santa Ana making final arrangements. Though it appears that the city trustees are in favor of granting the Griffith people a permit to use Fourth street for the parade scene and for stringing banners across the street, the permission of the board will have to be secured by the motion picture company's representatives at the regular meeting of the trustees next Monday night. Captain Dalton asked Mayor Visel for the permits yesterday but the mayor would not himself take the responsibility of granting them.
Before he left yesterday Captain Dalton said that he would appear before the City Council on Monday night

EX-PRES. TAFT SEES SMALL CHANCE FOR A REPUBLICAN VICTORY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—William Howard Taft, former president of the United States, who arrived here tonight, expressed the opinion that the European war had an important effect upon American political conditions.
"The chances of Republican success at the coming presidential election," he said, "were excellent until the war intervened to upset the normal trend of events. Under the present conditions no man may prophesy the outcome. This war has prevented the normal and natural effects of the Democratic tariff and given a protection which that tariff would not have secured to American industries."

BRITISH SOLDIERS MAY BE ENCASED IN STEEL SOON

Dr. Doyle, Creator of "Sherlock Holmes," In Favor of Armor Clad Tommies

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, Aug. 14 (by mail).—The 1916 British army may be an armored army.

The great casualty list that filters through the war office every day from the front; the convalescent wounded and battered soldiers that are always on the streets and the overhauling hospitals are beginning to have their effect.

Many ask, "Isn't there a way to minimize this appalling situation?"
Somebody has answered, "Armor." And it's beginning to look like armor for the British soldiers of 1916.

While the British war office is considering whether it shall slip back to medieval methods of warfare so far as the protection of the soldier is concerned, well known Britishers are telling the war office through the press that armor is a natural necessity in these days of machine guns and high-powered rifles.

Scores of suggestions for modern 1916 armor emanating from scientists have narrowed down to the practicability of a three-piece suit of tempered steel that would protect the forehead, breast and abdomen—the three vital spots of the body. The favored head-piece, will, if authorized by the war office, take the form of the highly-tempered steel skull cap-like protector now worn by the French to minimize the danger of shrapnel. The breast-plate would be a thin leather-covered hardened plate of steel, curved to fit over the chest and held by straps that go over the shoulders and around the waist. The abdominal protector is suggested in the form of another curved sheet of steel fitting over the lower ribs and extending down to the

TORPEDO BOATS REACH WATERS IN ALASKA

SEWARD, Alaska, Aug. 25.—Four of the five torpedo boat destroyers cruising in Alaska waters arrived here yesterday from Kodiak. The fifth, the Whipple, which was damaged by storm near Port Orford, Ore., during the voyage north from Seward, sailed from the Puget Sound Navy Yard later than the other four vessels and did not overtake them and is now at Sitka.

Arranged shields on wheels such as Conan Doyle suggests were used by the United States infantry during the last days of the Spanish-American war in Cuba, according to an English authority on armor. They were invented by General Roy Stone, of the British army. Each shield lay horizontally and carried the impediments of marching soldiers when not placed vertically for sterner use.

Due to the rough character of the ground and the predominance of mounted forces in the Cuban campaign, the American experiment was a failure, it was stated.

Whether the government will accept the "testudo" is uncertain, but it is strongly whispered that armor will have to do with British armies of the coming year.

Arranged shields on wheels such as Conan Doyle suggests were used by the United States infantry during the last days of the Spanish-American war in Cuba, according to an English authority on armor. They were invented by General Roy Stone, of the British army. Each shield lay horizontally and carried the impediments of marching soldiers when not placed vertically for sterner use.

Due to the rough character of the ground and the predominance of mounted forces in the Cuban campaign, the American experiment was a failure, it was stated.

Whether the government will accept the "testudo" is uncertain, but it is strongly whispered that armor will have to do with British armies of the coming year.

PROPOSES DIPS BE LESSEND

Anaheim Herald, Aug. 24: The good roads committee of the Board of Trade will have some work to do for some time to come. At the meeting last night the attention of the members was drawn to the dips in the paving on Center and Los Angeles streets by H. O. Henderson, Herman Noll mentioned the bad condition of the roads at the end of the paving on Lemon street. The matters were allotted to the committee to get fixed up.

The dips in Center and Los Angeles streets come under the control of the city of Anaheim but the other bad pieces are under the jurisdiction of the county supervisors. It is understood that Supervisor Wm. Schumacher of Buena Park will give the bad places on Lemon street prompt attention. The good roads committee is composed of O. H. Renner, J. S. Howard and P. A. Yungbluth.

While the subject of good roads was under discussion it was drawn to the attention of the meeting that a sign about four miles east of Olive, near Peralta, bore the information that it was eight miles shorter to Los Angeles via Placentia than to come on down the canyon to Anaheim. This was shown to be incorrect as it is not over a mile shorter by way of Placentia. Some action will be taken on this in a short time.

The river protection plans were up for discussion and a report from J. W. Duckworth was read. It showed that the work toward the protection of the river banks was getting along nicely and that the necessary funds would be forthcoming. A representative of the Santa Fe had been taken over the district and it is understood that the railway company will give some financial assistance.

A committee composed of Herman Noll, H. M. Adams, Chas. Sygabroad and H. O. Henderson was appointed to devise ways and means to raise more funds for the Board of Trade to be used in advertising. It is expected that these gentlemen will have something for the next meeting. A representative of the Foley & Burke Amusement Company was present and asked regarding Pioneer Week for 1915. It was the opinion of those present that nothing of this kind will be put on this fall.

A. A. Mills gave a short talk on the bonding of Orange county for the Newport harbor. Anaheim has given over three hundred signers to the petition for the calling of an election and has shown that this district is willing to help to make the harbor a reality.

RAILROAD OPERATORS AWAIT STRIKE ORDERS

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Aug. 25.—That a strike of all telegraphers and telephone operators employed by the Chicago Great Western Railroad is imminent and that every member of the Order of Railway Telegraphers is awaiting the word from headquarters to leave their posts, is asserted by E. E. Delaplane, representing the O. R. T., who is in Dubuque for hotel accommodations should a strike be called.

The road agreed to raise the telegraphers' salaries, but refused an increase to the telephone operators. The workers demand that the telephone operators receive a raise also, as they are members of the organization.

CARRANZA NOTE SOON TO BE IN WASHINGTON

Will Come In Under the Time Limit If Despatched Any Time Today

VERA CRUZ, Aug. 25.—First Chief Carranza's reply to the Pan-American note will be sent to Washington, probably today.

The note, which is dated August 17, suggests a conference of the revolutionary leaders with the object of settling their differences and establishing a provisional government. A time limit of ten days was fixed for reply.

Semi-official announcement was made this morning that the first chief was drafting his note. It is the belief in official circles here that General Carranza will affirm that the Constitutional forces are in control of the greater part of the republic; that their opponents are disorganized; and in flight, and that, therefore, the Constitutionalists are entitled to consideration of their claims for recognition as the properly constituted government of Mexico.

The final touches to the first chief's note await replies to a note of inquiry addressed by Foreign Minister Acuna, through John R. Silliman, the special representative of the United States, to diplomatic representatives in Washington.

The Acuna note asks whether they were acting officially for their respective governments in signing the note to Carranza.

Carranza's foreign minister expects the diplomats will reply promptly, in which case the answer will be despatched. Three days remain before the expiration of the time limit.

CARRANZA CLOSES SALOONS AND TAKES LICENSES

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Aug. 25.—Carranza officials have put absolute prohibition into effect in the larger towns of Sonora now under their control, according to travelers who arrived from interior points today. Nacozari saloon men were ordered to lock their doors last Saturday. Cananea went dry Monday, and according to reports General Calles, the Carranza chief, intends to destroy the stocks of liquor.

CATTLEMAN KILLED AFTER QUARREL WITH VILLA

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 25.—The body of Meli Wormer, an American cattleman, with large interests in Mexico, was found on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande tonight by American secret service men. Wormer evidently had been murdered, supposedly by Mexicans.

Wormer went to Juarez a week ago to interview the Villa authorities regarding a cattle deal. His automobile returned empty. He is reported to have had a quarrel with the Villa authorities over the deal.

Reports here tonight that Wormer was murdered were partially borne out by the attitude of the Villa authorities in Juarez. They refused permission to L. E. Booker, Wormer's business partner, to view the body.

The body was without clothing and was partially buried in the sand at the river's edge. The back of the head had been crushed in.

CARRANZA LOSES 1000 SOLDIERS KILLED, MANY WOUNDED

Tailor Made vs. Ready Made Clothes

Why It Pays to Have Your Clothes Made By a Tailor

Fall Fabrics and Fashions Now Ready

Beautiful, indeed, are the exclusive fabrics for gentlemen's clothes for the autumn and winter of 1915-16. The designers of these beautiful effects have surely outdone themselves and have produced cloths most exquisite in colors, shades and mixtures. Our line constitutes special selections from these choicest productions.

What Makes the Suit?

Here's the answer—workmanship. Let us prove it to you. Take two pieces of cloth identically alike, let one piece be made up into the average poorly tailored, ill-fitting suit you buy ready made and have the other piece made to your measure by a competent tailor. You'll get double the service out of the tailor made suit. ITS THE WORK THAT MAKES THE SUIT.

BRITISH DECLARE COTTON TO BE CONTRABAND OF WAR

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Ambassador Page has called to the State Department that Great Britain's official announcement declaring cotton contraband has been promulgated. It is believed the government's forthcoming British note carries a broad objection against the contraband of cotton. America refuses to accept the British provision to make shippers prove their cargoes are not destined for Germany.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Attorney General Gregory has issued an opinion which it is believed will virtually nullify the life-saving equipment clause in the La Follette Seamen's bill.

GREAT ITALIAN TENOR GUEST AT TAVERN OVERLOOKING BAY

Constantino, the celebrated Italian tenor, has been spending considerable time at the Palisades Tavern, which is located on the beautiful palisades overlooking Newport Bay, where he has been resting up after a very strenuous operatic season and preparing for the fall tour which opens up in September.

With him on this vacation were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts of Los Angeles, Madam Alys Lorraine, the noted contralto, who, it is reported, will sing with Constantino this fall, and Glover P. Widney, who is the manager for the singer, and Mrs. Widney.

The rugged grandeur and beauty of the coast line at this point especially appealed to the great singer and of it he said that though he had traveled all over Norway and Sweden, yet he had never had anything inspire him more than this view of the surf pounding on the rocky coast at Balboa Palisades.

More and more the Palisades Tavern and Balboa Palisades in general becoming a mecca for week-end trips and vacation parties not only from Orange county towns but also from different Riverside county points as well as from Los Angeles.

SCORES PREACHERS OF B. SUNDAY TYPE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Addressing the Unitarian and other Christian churches today, ex-President Taft scored evangelists of the Billy Sunday type. He derided these evangelists because they make "attacks on Christian ministers. Also his vituperation, his slangy phrases and total irreverence. The present age seems to think it good form to denounce something or somebody. Such evangelical efforts are bubbles of a passing period."

CUSTOMS CHIEF PLANS WIRE BORDER FENCE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—A barbed wire fence to check stray Mexican cattle and smugglers is planned by F. M. Halstead, chief of the customs bureau of the treasury department, who reached Los Angeles yesterday with J. B. Elliott, local collector of customs, after a trip through the southern part of the state. Chief Halstead's idea is to construct a heavy barbed-wire fence from Yuma to the Pacific coast along the Mexican boundary.

OUR BIGGEST ASSET

Santa Ana has done but little to attract or hold tourist business. Indeed the community has rather prided itself upon the fact that its progress and prosperity are not dependent upon the tourist business; that its resources and attractions are of a more substantial nature.

That Orange county does excel in richness and variety of productive resources is correctly claimed and commonly conceded; but that is no reason why its beauties of scenery and its superiority of climate should not be exploited. With the finest coastline in the state on one side and the most beautiful and most easily accessible canyons and mountains on the other side, with a winter climate unexcelled anywhere AND A SUMMER CLIMATE THAT HAS NO EQUAL ON THE FACE OF THE EARTH, Orange County and Santa Ana have tourist possibilities of incalculable value.

At a recent public meeting in San Bernardino, a local attorney made the statement that San Bernardino must continue to emphasize commercial supremacy and continue to neglect those things which attract the tourist and incidentally minister to its own artistic sensibilities.

The Sun resents this view and insists that the "city beautiful" idea which has made Riverside one of the leading tourist resorts of the state is more important than manufacturing industries and commercial enterprises. In view of the fact that San Bernardino has been developed mainly as a commercial and industrial center, this view is interesting. Riversiders will find "food for thought" and occasion for congratulation in the Sun editorial. We quote as follows:

The things that make a city attractive to the tourist are also the same things that make a city attractive to its own people. When we began to spend some hundreds of thousands of dollars in good streets here in San Bernardino, and started the development of a spirit which is now spending some millions for good roads in the county, we were doing that for the tourists as well as for ourselves, and if you doubt that diagnosis, ride over these boulevards with the travelers from other states and hear them enthuse.

But good roads are only the start. When we go to Riverside, and dream over the charm of the Mission Inn, we envy that city her greatest asset and wish we could duplicate it. Then we drive up Rubidoux and admire the panorama spread at our feet, and again we wish.

Or, if the spirit moves us toward Redlands, the ride along her show drives like Highland avenue again causes the hope to rise that we may duplicate them in San Bernardino, and when we wander through the mazes of Smiley Heights we continue to be envious.

Yet the truth is that here at our doors and owned by the city we have the possibilities of a combined Rubidoux and Smiley Heights. Perris hill, owned by the city, can be made not only to rival but to surpass these admitted attractions of our neighbors. And for San Bernardino to settle to a policy which shuts this door of opportunity is not to be thought of. The appointment of a park commission paves the way rather for new development than for a contrary policy.

PAROLE FOR RUEF

The people of California, if the matter may be judged by current expressions of opinion, will view with favor the parolage of Abe Ruef. They recognize the serious nature of his crime, and they remember still that he was a prominent figure in such political corruption as disgraced the state. He had been a model prisoner. He had served such proportion of his time as permitted him to apply for release. His power is broken. There is no probability that ever again he can become potent in affairs.

It is not alone because people believe that the man has suffered enough, that they will approve his release. It is partly from their innate sense of fair play. They know that Ruef abused a power he never ought to have been permitted to wield, but they remember that he was but part of a system, and that with him, at least equally guilty, were others as bad, who went unscathed. Moreover, they recall his good traits, among which was loyalty to friends. Had the whole gang been convicted and made to suffer equally, in all probability they would have remained in their cells to the end of their terms, and no sympathy been felt for any of them. Ruef, to use the familiar phrase, was "made the goat."

A man on parole has to behave rigidly, or he goes back. Ruef is too well known to hide himself. His conduct will be open, and his whole career in the future be under scrutiny. It is safe to say that the liberty now accorded him will not result harmfully to public welfare or morals.—Pasadena News.

HOW DO YOU REST?

If you swing a heavy sledge all day, take your "exercise"—rest yourself—by doing something that will make you forget the sledge.

If you grind at a desk or counter all day, take your exercise, your rest by doing something that will make you forget the desk or counter grind.

If you earn your bread and butter by thinking—mow the lawn.

If it's your work to push a lawn mower—do something that will make you think.

If a man has a job at being happy it will rest him to be solemn. If a man has a solemn job, it will rest him to laugh.

The little lady who makes high priced gowns for richer folk, can find rest looking at flowers in the woods. The man who works in the woods or fields is rested by looking at the pretty dresses in the city show windows.

If your work compels you to wear a red coat, sneak away once in a while and put on a blue coat.

A change—that's the cure, that's the "exercise" we all need.

This is nothing new we are telling you, but it's something we don't think about enough, the same as we don't think enough about a lot of little things which are really important.

WHEELS OF TWO AUTOS
LOCK ON PAVEMENT OF
NEWPORT HIGHWAY

Orange News: H. A. Brown and family and Roy Crawford had a fortunate escape last evening when a wheel was torn from their car in a collision with another machine on the Newport road. The accident happened at the top of the hill just this side of Newport.

Mr. Brown was driving slowly homeward when a car driven by Joseph Ingersoll of San Bernardino met him. Ingersoll was taking up most of the road and failed to keep his own side as they passed. His car knocked the left front wheel from Brown's machine and smashed it into kindling wood. Luckily the machine did not turn over and no one was hurt. Ingersoll's car lost a hub cap and received slight damage to the battery box.

Mr. Brown's car was towed into Orange this morning. Ingersoll was located at Newport, and after some argument he decided to pay the damages.

CAPTAIN KELLY, HARBOR BOOSTER

By Herman Reuter

In Captain William Kelly, who lives at Delhi, is seen one of the most splendid examples of the booster who, in the face of the jeers of skeptics and pessimists, devotes the greater part of his lifetime to advocating a thing which his experience convinces him would be to the best advantage of the community in which he lives. Since 1884 Captain Kelly has been tireless and indefatigable in his efforts to further the improvement of Newport Bay. Captain Kelly first saw the body of water in 1884. He was struck with the similarity of the bay with Otago Bay, New Zealand. Investigation proved to his entire satisfaction that Newport Bay could be improved in the same way that Otago Bay had been improved. He knew that if Orange county were to have a harbor its future progress would be as rapid as that of the territory adjoining Otago. He knew that no man who knew what he knew could do a greater service to his community than to do all in his power to disseminate his knowledge and to convince the people that by continuing to allow the bay to lie unimproved they would be overlooking one of their greatest opportunities. During all these years Captain Kelly's faith has remained unshaken. Quietly, unassuming, yet as forcefully as he knew how, he did what he could to batter down the barriers of doubt, of procrastination, of selfishness, of ignorance. He is still busily engaged in his self-appointed task. Everywhere he goes he loses no opportunity to say a word about the subject that is nearest his heart.

There is something fine about a record such as this. A contemplation of such unwavering adherence cannot help but convince one that there must be authenticity and worth behind the things that originally inspired the idea. Such faith is contagious. The work of Captain Kelly compares with that of hundreds of others in Orange county who have been tireless to bring about the improvement of Newport Bay. The boosting spirit that has brought the circulations of petitions asking the supervisors to appoint a harbor committee to investigate the needs of Newport Bay is largely responsible for the hearty support that is being given the movement. The spectacle of a comparatively small body of men, working wholeheartedly and unselfishly to one common end, invariably has the effect of arousing confidence and the conviction that what is being worked for is worthy.

The harbor boosters have met with more obstacles and with more skepticism than has perhaps any other body of men which has sought to bring about a much needed public improvement. Yet they have stood by their guns with grim determination. They have paid out money from their own pockets and have given years of valuable time to the cause.

Now that victory is in sight at last, the least that the electors of Orange county can do is to sign the harbor petitions. It should be remembered that these petitions are not asking that the supervisors hold a bond election. They are asking merely that the supervisors appoint a committee to make a thorough analysis of the feasibility of improving the harbor and to estimate the probable cost of the work. Once this committee makes its report and it is favorable the supervisors are empowered under a new state law to form a harbor district and call for a bond election.

It should be remembered that no surveyor who has ever paid a visit to Newport Bay has said that it is impossible to improve the body of water. Albert Boschke, one of the world's greatest engineers, now deceased, saw a wonderful future for Newport Bay. He was unable to point to one thing which would work against a successful carrying out of improvement work.

The city of Newport Beach is setting a splendid example—one that should inspire all Orange county people to renewed efforts. As soon as placed for certain bay frontage, are deeds in escrow Newport will hold a $100,000 bond election, the money to be used for the construction of jetties.

It is gratifying to the harbor boosters to see that their efforts of years are bearing fruit at last. They know that if Newport Beach and Orange county once improve the bay sufficiently to allow shipping to enter, there should be no trouble in securing an appropriation from Congress to complete the work.

With Railroad Commission

(From L. A. Financial News.)

Public Utilities

The Railroad Commission has issued an order authorizing the Mt. Whitney Power and Electric Company to execute to the Bankers' Trust Company of New York, Trustee, a supplemental mortgage covering the property recently acquired from the Tulare County Power Company. This is in security additional to the other properties of the Mt. Whitney Company to secure a mortgage for the payment of $5,000,000, face value of six per cent sinking fund 30-year gold bonds; also a first supplemental order amending its decision of July 23, 1915, so as to permit the Mt. Whitney Power and Electric Company to issue notes authorized in that order to parties other than the Tulare County Power Company. The commission also orders that the proceeds of the notes shall be used to retire the notes in favor of Tulare County Power Company. The order now amended authorizes the company to sell $400,000 par value of its 10 per cent mortgage bonds sinking fund gold bonds not less than 95 per cent net face value and accrued interest.

The San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation has been authorized to pledge as collateral security $200,000 first refunding mortgage 40-year series "C" 6 per cent bonds, for an issue of promissory notes not exceeding $152,750. The notes are to be in such ratio that their face value shall not be less than 75 per cent of the face value of the pledged bonds, are to mature on or before two years and to bear interest of not over 8 per cent; April 1, 1916, to be the limit of issuance.

On the ground that its present charge of 48 cents for 1000 cubic feet of gas is not remunerative, the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation has filed with the Railroad Commission an application for permission to raise rates. The corporation manufactures and distributes artificial gas, but it buys natural gas from the Southern California Gas Company, and mixes this with its artificial gas in equal proportions. The company says it has been discouraged in its efforts to distribute this mixture of gas on terms affording protection to the public and a reasonable compensation to itself.

Railroad Companies

The California Southern Railroad Company has filed with the commission an application for authority to increase its capital stock from $300,000 to $1,000,000. The shares are to be of the par value of $100 each. The company also asks authority to create a bonded indebtedness of $750,000. It wishes to sell the stock at a price to yield $70 net a share to the corporation.

The Los Angeles and San Diego Beach Railway Company has filed with the Railroad Commission an application for authority to issue a note for $100,000 for four months at 6 per cent, to the American National Bank of San Diego, to renew a similar note, the money having been spent for betterments to the railway.

The commission has issued an order relieving temporarily the railroads of California from the provisions of chapter 494 of the California statutes of 1915. This law took effect at midnight on August 7th. It compels the lines to have agents or operators at all stations where trains stop to receive orders, concerning their movements. The roads applied for relief, pending a hearing by the commission, and its decision as to what exceptions to the law may be granted.

IMPRESSIVE WEDDING

Miss Fannie Neumann Becomes Bride of Theodore Kleiner of Ventura

A beautiful wedding was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Herzikopf, 1608 North Main street, when Miss Fannie Neumann became the bride of Mr. Theodore Kleiner of Ventura, a nephew of Mrs. S. B. Brown of this city.

The home was decorated with a profusion of scarlet asters and ferns and the wedding party took their places, as the strains of Mendelssohn wedding march were played by Mr. E. Nasatir. The bride made a charming picture in her gown of rich white lace over blue messaline. Her shimmering wedding veil was wreathed with orange blossoms and she carried an exquisite arm bouquet of creamy brides roses and maiden hair fern.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Karp and Mr. and Mrs. J. Schenken stood with their friends during the plighting of the nuptial vows. Mrs. Schenken wore a gown of crepe de chene and Mrs. Karp was attired in white silk.

Rev. Dr. I. Werne of the Olive street Synagogue of Los Angeles performed the ceremony, the marriage vows being impressively sealed as the Rabbi filled a glass with sparkling wine and handed it to the bridegroom who sipped from the glass before passing it to his bride.

Mrs. Anna Woucanoff, Miss Ethel Brown and Mr. E. Nasatir furnished piano and violin music preceding the ceremony which was followed by a sumptuous wedding supper.

The table was centered by a beautiful white frosted bride's cake, covers being laid for the wedding party which included the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kleiner, Mr. and Mrs. M. Karp, Mr. and Mrs. S. Horowitz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Schenken, Mr. and Mrs. S. Stein, Mr. and Mrs. J. Herzikopf, Rev. Dr. I. Werne of Los Angeles, Mrs. S. B. Brown, Mrs. J. Brown, Miss Ethel Brown, and Messrs. E. Nasatir, L. Horowitz, S. Santak, J. Reinhaus and Mr. Hillman of Los Angeles.

The popular couple received many beautiful wedding gifts and masses of pink chrysanthemums, roses and carnations were sent to the winsome bride.

Midst a shower of rice and good wishes Mr. and Mrs. Kleiner left for a honeymoon trip through Southern California. The bride's going away suit was of white with large picture hat to match. After attending the San Diego Exposition, the young couple will reside at Ventura where cozy apartments await their occupancy.

INTEREST DOES NOT WANE IN CONVENTION OF EDUCATORS

Some of the Papers of Yesterday Had to Be Allotted to This Morning

OAKLAND, Aug. 25.—The early hours of today's session of the convention of educators now meeting in this city were devoted to listening to some of the papers which could not be disposed of yesterday afternoon and evening. This took all the morning, leaving this afternoon and evening to the discussion of but two papers for the day's schedule.

The delegates did not care, however, for they had been vastly entertained by what they had listened to during all day yesterday and this morning. The subject for discussion this afternoon was a very important one, being "Japanese Education in America," the author being a Nipponese, K. S. Inui, and he handled the delicate subject very satisfactorily and without causing the slightest friction when discussion was called for.

WOODMEN OF WORLD TO HAVE NEW HOME

Grand Army Hall Will Be the Place Where This Camp Meets In Future

It was finally decided at the meeting of the Local camp of the Woodmen of the World, held at Moose hall last night, that they would move into G. A. R. hall the first of September. The only reason advanced for a change was that the Moose hall was too large to hold meetings where but a small percentage of the membership of any society attended the meetings as a regular thing.

The Woodmen have a very nice portable stage, with footlights and accessories which make it one of the very best little stages in the city on which to set a scene for an amateur performance, or on which to give the entertainment for which the Woodmen of the World are famous. It is expected that this stage will be put up permanently in their new home, and if that be true it will add a great deal to the G. A. R. hall when entertainments are to be given in that place.

The ladies of the G. A. R., both Relief Corps and Shiloh Circle, give some very excellent entertainments in the hall, and hitherto they have been handicapped by the fact that there was no stage, and in fact nothing but a very small pedestal on which to stand and speak. If the Woodmen put up their stage this will give the ladies something they have wanted ever since they have been giving their entertainments.

The vote to change halls last night was unanimous. The hall committee was empowered to see the trustees of the G. A. R. hall this afternoon and complete all arrangements for taking possession of the hall every Tuesday night, after September 7.

to its readers, who will ever be grateful for the opportunity offered by this grand educational distribution.

In addition to the 600 beautiful text illustrations are full page plates of the famous Tissot pictures in handsome colors. As Edward K. Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, says: "This Bible is not a meaningless picture book. The illustrations serve a distinct purpose. They enrich the text, but they do more—they intelligently EXPLAIN it, so that many a hitherto obscure passage assumes to thousands a new meaning through these eye-teaching pictures."

You will enjoy this Bible, whether you belong to the church or not, for its "eye-teaching" pictures make it of rare educational value to all.

Today's Bible Certificate will be found on another page.

This is what Abraham Lincoln said: "No library is complete without two certain books—the Bible and Shakespeare; hardly a quotation is used in literature that is not taken from one of these books."

ESTIMATES THAT COUNTY SEAT'S POPULATION IS 14,000

Santa Ana has a population of 14,000 according to figures published by State Controller Chambers. Mr. Chambers has just issued a bulletin on "Financial Transactions of Cities" which contains some information of real interest. Figures for 1910 and 1914 are given and these show a gain of 5571 for Santa Ana for the four years. The report for 1915 is based upon estimates, not upon census.

Los Angeles is credited by this report with an increase of 206,802 in population since 1910, when the federal census was taken, or a population of 520,000. The population of Los Angeles, according to the federal census in 1910, was 319,198.

In the corresponding period, San Francisco is credited with a population increase of only 8088, which is just a trifle more than one-twenty-fifth the growth of Los Angeles.

The report shows that there has been a tremendous growth throughout

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OFFER OF FIFTY FOOT STREET ACCEPTED

Supervisors Leck and Struck Wanting Sixty Feet Vote Against It

By a vote of three to two, the Board of Supervisors voted to accept a fifty-foot right of way on Crowther avenue between Placentia and Placentia avenue.

Supervisors Leck and Struck contended that the road should be sixty feet wide, and that unless that much right of way was secured the road ought not to be paved, as contemplated. Supervisors Schumacher, Talbert and Smith voted in favor of accepting the right of way as offered. The road lies between orchards and property owners demurred against giving more than enough to make the road fifty feet wide.

Bond Is Accepted
The surety company bond of Hart & Ducey, contractors for paving roads at Tustin, was accepted. The bond is $4614.60 to cover materials and $2307.30 for labor and faithful performance.

September 8 was set as the time for opening bids for the Buena Park lighting district street lights.

Edna Makinson of Santa Ana was appointed assistant at the Orange County public bureau at the San Francisco exposition, for four months at $75 a month.

J. L. McBride, A. C. Williams and O. H. Burke were appointed viewers on the A. G. Finley road petition. The petition of the Olive Milling Company to lay a pipeline across a road at Olive was granted. The board adjourned to September 6, at which time the tax rate will be officially set.

AT THE COURT HOUSE

TAX RATE WILL BE RAISED TO ABOUT $1.90

Development, High School Change Makes Climb Necessary

The county tax rate for this year will be either $1.90 or $1.95 per $100 of assessed valuation outside incorporated cities.

Last year the county rate was $1.45 outside cities and $1.40 or $1.45 inside incorporated cities.

Last year the county rate was $1.45 outside cities and $1.05 inside. The rate will not be officially fixed until Monday, Sept. 6. However, at a conference of the supervisors this morning the decision was practically reached as to the rate.

The raise was necessitated by a number of circumstances, most of them due to the development of the county. In fixing the budget last year the allowance for the salary fund was too low, and some of that must be made up in the raise this year.

Twenty cents of the forty-five or fifty-cent raise is in reality not a raise over last year. Last year the districts not in any high school district had to pay a fifteen-cent levy for the "high school tuition fund," which did not appear in the county tax rate. This fund was to repay high school districts for the tuition of students who did not live in the district. The last legislature made a new procedure whereby the entire county is taxed at a rate to provide $60 per pupil. This takes the place of the old tuition rate. Because of the help from the outside districts most of the high school districts are enabled this year to set the special tax rate twenty cents lower than last year. That means, in effect, that where it was paid on the school tax last year, that twenty cents is this year paid on the county rate.

The Board of Supervisors has in mind the means of its obligations to do road improvement work, including the paving in the Santa Ana canyon at least as far up as Peralta, and the paving of the Yorba-Placentia road. Such work as that that is responsible largely for an increase in the current expense item from thirty-three and six-tenths cents to fifty-five and two-tenths cents or sixty and two-tenths cents.
